

RED ROCKS CHURCH | CAMPUS PASTORS

START

To get things started, go around the circle and answer this question:

If you could only eat one food item for the rest of your life, what would it be and why?

Throughout this series, we wanted to change it up, to be a little unpredictable. As a leadership team, we prayed and decided that instead of packaging a series together, we could do a series of individual messages. Our prayer has been that these messages would be timely and allow those teaching to have the flexibility to talk about whatever they feel led to talk about from their own individual time with Jesus. Our hope is that first we would all grow deeper in our relationship with God and with each other. Second, that we would really allow God to speak to us individually about our lives, and third, that we would then be in a position to respond and take action.

This week we had an opportunity to hear from the Campus Pastors. We always look forward to hearing what God has been placing on the hearts of our pastors as they lead their campuses. We hope that you enjoyed this awesome opportunity to hear from yours!

Since every campus had a different message, the LG Weekly is going to look a little different this time around. We wanted to give every group the opportunity to dive into a study that would be congruent for the message they heard this weekend. So, we have provided some questions to foster conversation and direction for your group meeting tonight. Remember, these are just some general questions that might help get the conversation started. Use all of them or just a few of them.

The point of meeting is to encourage each other in what God is teaching you through his word and talk about how that applies to our individual lives.

What was one thing that stood out to you most from this week's message?

Was there a verse or a story that was particularly memorable for you? If so, why?

GROW

If you were to put a name to the season of life you are in, what would you call it?

What area of your life do you feel most stretched in right now, and what do you think God wants to teach you through it?

MOVE

What is standing in your way of becoming the person God wants you to become?

Is there something you feel God is asking you to start doing or something you need to stop doing?

This week, how can you begin to apply what you learned from this weekend's message?

PRAY

As a group, spend some time praying for each other's hearts, relationships, and families. If you are in a co-ed group, consider breaking up into men and women's groups to talk more freely.

TO GO

2 Thessalonians 3.5 (NLT)

May the Lord lead your hearts into a full understanding and expression of the love of God and the patient endurance that comes from Christ.
