

Remote Control: The choice is yours

Self-control is choosing to do what you should even when you don't want to.

MEMORY VERSE

"God's power has given us everything we need to lead a godly life."
2 Peter 1:3a, NIV

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

Start your kid's day off with encouragement by telling them about an area where you saw them be creative—whether it was solving a problem, navigating a situation, or creating art.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask: "What are things a person can do to make sure they stay in control of a situation?" (Not in a manipulative way, but in a wise and safe way.) Talk through some scenarios.

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "Who are some of your closest friends right now? What do you like most about them?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "Help us to recognize when we are losing control of ourselves. Help us to choose to respond wisely, and not just react."
