What You Need: Large blue flat sheet, Colored pom-poms

1. Lay the blue sheet flat in the center of the floor.
2. Gather the children to stand around the sheet.
3. Toss the pom-poms onto the center of the sheet.
4. Explain that when the sheet is on the floor, the pom-poms are like fish, swimming in the water.
5. Encourage the children to bend down and grab the sheet with both hands, then stand up. Children will pop the sheet so that the pom-poms fly in the air like birds!
6. Then have them lay the sheet down flat again as the water holding the fish. Repeat as time and interest allow.

Say (After the Activity): "God made all the fish and all the birds on day five. Isn't that the coolest? Everyone say, 'Yay, God!' (Pause.) Awesome. God made the birds and fish on day five! Who made everything? God made everything!"
