

Power in The Promise | Conrad Bess | 5.14.23
Weekly Study

This weekend we had the honor to hear from Conrad, our Littleton Campus Pastor. We are so thankful for him as he shared from a posture of grace, vulnerability and hope. He reminded us that God has promised us the presence, empowerment and consolation of Holy Spirit. It is in the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimony that will move in the lives of people. The Church is the hope dealers, peace bringers and joy givers. People need this and because of the work that God has done within us, we can share the Good News. If not us, then who?

Read Revelation 12:11; 1 Corinthians 14:3

“Every testimony brings something of heaven into the atmosphere. It gives us a divine moment when things shift and are transformed because the record of God’s activity is revealed.” (B. Johnson)

What was one thing that stood out to you most from this week’s message and why?

Was there a verse or a story that was particularly impactful from the message?

What dream has God placed on your heart that you have refused to let go of because of the promise God has made you?

Do you believe that God will finish what he has started in your life? Where do you need to refuse despair in your life? Refuse disappointment?

Describe the season of life that you are in right now? What are you learning? What are you being stretched in?

What is standing in your way of believing in who God says He is and what He has promised to do?

This week, how can you begin to testify to the goodness of God in your life? To your family? To your neighbors? To your friends? Co-workers?

As carriers of the Good News of Jesus Christ, pray together.

- Share about something you or someone you know needs prayer for and then once everyone shares, pray for the person on your right.
- Who is one person you know that doesn't know Jesus, let's pray for them by name and find ways to get to know them better and ask God for opportunities to share with them the Gospel.
- Think of a few things that you can thank God for in prayer, remembering the things He has already done in your life.
